Rutgers Law School, Newark, New Jersey

Professor Robert E. Knowlton . . .

WHEREAS you have distinguished yourself as a scholar, advocate, and professor of law;

WHEREAS you have instilled in all those with whom you have come in contact the highest degree of respect for the legal profession;

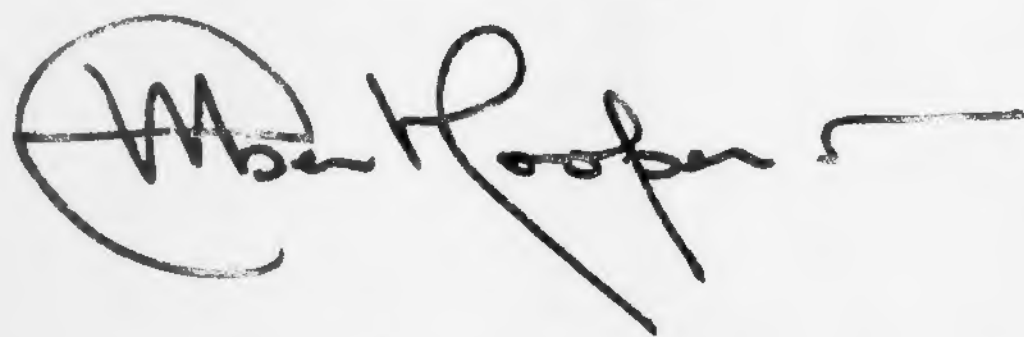

WHEREAS by your record of achievement in that field, you have inspired others to work tirelessly toward the perfection of that body of laws by which we are governed;

WHEREAS your professorship is characterized by selfless dedication to the complete legal education of those students whom it is your responsibility to teach;

IT IS RESOLVED by the unanimous body of the Class of 1966 that its yearbook, the 1966 Legacy, which book marks the Bicentennial Anniversary of the establishment of Rutgers University, be dedicated in your honor.

Done in the City of Newark this FIRST day of JUNE in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and SIXTY-SIX, and of the Establishment of Rutgers University the two hundredth.
